Dear Supporter,

Please consider joining the Friends of the Brush-tailed Rock-wallaby Incorporated and provide valuable assistance in helping to save a locally endangered species. Community support is an integral part of the recovery process.

The Friends have received recognition both locally and nationally and are seen as an excellent example of what a community group can do to help preserve a threatened species. Our subscription fees are very reasonable and being a not-for-profit group, all funds we raise go towards projects that will assist conserve the Brush-tailed Rock-wallaby as well as other local wildlife.

Thank you for your support,

Chris Pryor
